It was a great convention with Rachel Notley being one of the guest speakers, and the following elected to leadership roles:

Hassan Yussuff - President

Hassan Yussuff was re-elected for a second term as President of the Canadian Labour Congress in May 2017. He was first elected to the position in May 2014, becoming the first person of colour to lead Canada's union movement.

Marie Clarke Walker - Secretary-Treasurer

Marie made history in 2002 when she was elected as the first racialized woman and youngest person ever elected to the position of Executive Vice-President of the Canadian Labour Congress. She served in that position for five terms before once again making history in May 2017, being elected as the first-ever racialized woman to serve as CLC Secretary-Treasurer.

Donald Lafleur - Executive Vice-President

Donald Lafleur was first elected as Canadian Labour Congress Executive Vice-President in May 2014 and is now serving his second term.

Larry Rousseau - Executive Vice-President

Larry Rousseau was elected as CLC Executive Vice-President in at the CLC's 28th Constitutional convention in May 2017.

The summer is once again with us and the Local will be starting the BBQ again in the next few months and visiting work sites. I wish everyone a safe summer and time to be with family and friends.

In Solidarity

Jay Thompson,

President Unifor Local 4050
